

"I appeal to you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment."

—1 Corinthians 1:10

When the Apostle Paul received reports about the church in Corinth, a church he had planted, the news was discouraging. Disagreements about both important and unimportant things were causing serious divisions. The world was a mess ... and so was the church.

We live in a similarly divided world. In his letter to the Corinthians, Paul shares words of wisdom—words that might challenge us to mature in Christ, and so grow together in love.
